

Bassey Wai Andah 1994 - 1997

Bassey Andah was the third President of WAC elected at the Congress in Delhi in 1994, and he held this position until 1997.

Bassey, a Nigerian, completed his doctoral studies in Berkeley in the early 1970s and was appointed Professor of Education at the University of Lagos in 1975.

From the first WAC Conference in Southampton in 1986 when he spoke out against apartheid, Bassey has been a vocal and active member of the organization.

(The information for this summary was sourced from the publication of the text of the Bassey Wai Andah memoirs.)