

This section of the website details the core activities of WAC.

WAC holds international Congresses every four years, as well as Inter-Congresses. The Sixth World Archaeological Congress, Jamaica, May 2007 (WAC 6) is calling for papers. Check out the brochure English | Spanish

Publishing the results of archaeological research is an integral activity of WAC, which has several book series. In addition to this, a new journal is currently being established by WAC. WAC also has an email newsletter, which is issued bi-monthly.

A series of Taskforces and Standing Committees are an essential part of the activities of WAC. WAC members wishing to promote upcoming activities and events should contact their regional representative or email WAC to arrange their addition to this page.
